

ICDD – ITS WEBSITES AND SOCIAL MEDIA – AN ANALYSIS

M. Kottenhahn, International Centre for Diffraction Data, Newtown Square, PA

The ICDD.COM website strives to meet the information and communication needs of ICDD members, customers, scholars, professionals, Grant-in-Aid participants, developers, and students. ICDD.com hosts thousands of product and resource documents and efforts are made to get them to our audience. In recent years, ICDD has created and nurtured seven different social profiles (Facebook, YouTube, Twitter, LinkedIn, Weibo, Google+, Instagram). This poster will illustrate both the social media network and the official ICDD website statistics.
